

EVERGREEN CIRCLE: LEAD BOLDLY

AN INTENSIVE EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM FOR LEADERS WHO WANT TO...

- expand and enhance their strategic leadership skills
- challenge their organization to reach new heights
- develop capacity and capability – of themselves and those they lead
- realize the full potential of their organization
- enable their organization to become more agile

WHY INVEST IN AN EXECUTIVE CIRCLE?

- To lead strategically & cohesively in today's turbulent environment
- To challenge yourself to be your best
- To create enduring, profound professional and supportive peer relationships
- To get and give candid & straightforward feedback
- To create a place and way for you to tackle your toughest leadership challenges
- To surpass what you thought was possible & to help your organization do the same

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN AND DO

- How to use your signature strengths, talents and values as a leader
- Discover your own blind spots and ways to overcome personal challenge areas
- How to cast a vision that pulls your organization into a better future state
- How to use the creative process within your organization
- How to build engagement and buy in for new ideas and processes
- How to build capacity and capability in your team and your organization
- How to coach others to higher levels of performance
- How to manage polarities to avoid "flavor of the day" syndrome
- Evolve into a cohesive team that gets results

HOW IT WORKS

The process is designed for a group of 10 to 15 executives from non-competing organizations in the community who complete the program together while working on a significant project of strategic importance to the organization. Skills are learned by doing; relationships are deepened and community networks are nourished. The program combines group work, reading, individual coaching and a variety of other learning methods to create an unparalleled learning experience.
