

The 2020 Community Builders Award

Connect and Create

Who can be nominated?

Evergreen Leadership is recognizing and connecting leaders across the state of Indiana that demonstrate the following criteria:

- A collaborative mindset and strong desire to connect with other like-minded peers
- Proven commitment to make their community a better place through their leadership
- Exemplary leadership in the workplace and their community
- Eagerness to further develop their leadership skills

What is the award?

The selected 15 leaders will be invited to attend the fifth annual Community Builders Retreat hosted by Oakwood Center in Selma, IN. The leaders will enjoy complementary accommodations and meals, and during the retreat will be able to:

- Connect with fellow leaders from across the state
- Learn more about themselves as a leader
- Create opportunities to build a better future through their leadership
- Have fun!

How does the nomination process work?

To receive the Community Builders Award, leaders must be nominated by a sponsor in their community. To act as a sponsor and nominate a leader in your community, visit bit.ly/cbanominate and fill out the nomination form. Nominations are due on or before July 27th, and the recipients will be notified by early August.

The nominee must be able to attend the retreat at Oakwood Center in order to be considered. The Community Builders Retreat will start on Friday, August 21st and go through Saturday, August 22nd. Transportation not provided.

Nominate a leader today:
bit.ly/cbanominate